Burgess Hill Girls often invites speakers from the wider community to give talks to enrich our students' experience. We recognise the enormous benefit gained by students from speakers from all walks of life.

The purpose of this policy is to set out Burgess Hill Girls' legal obligation when using Visiting Speakers and to set out the standards of behaviour expected from Visiting Speakers. This policy should be read in conjunction with the school's Safeguarding policy.

The Prevent statutory guidance (<https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/prevent-dutyguidance>) expects schools to have clear protocols for ensuring any visiting speakers are appropriately supervised and suitable. This policy was therefore drawn up having had regard to the Government's Prevent Duty guidance and the school's wider safeguarding obligations.

Burgess Hill Girls' responsibility to students is to ensure they can critically assess the information they receive as to its value to themselves, and that such information is aligned to the ethos and values of Burgess Hill Girls and are also aligned to the British values of democracy, the rule of law, individual liberty and mutual respect and tolerance of those with different faiths and beliefs.

The protocols are:

- All visiting speakers must have a nominated point of contact at the school
- All requests for outside speakers require the prior approval of a member of the Senior Leadership Team
- The organiser obtains an outline of what the speaker intends to cover in advance of their visit.
- The organiser is to conduct research on the person/organisation to establish whether they have demonstrated extreme views/actions.
- No people/organisations may use the school premises if they have links to extreme groups or movements, nor will they be allowed to visit the school and speak to students
- Visiting speakers sign the "Agreement and Guidelines for Visiting Speakers" form as acceptance of the school's terms and conditions.
- The organiser will conduct a risk assessment in relation to Safeguarding and Prevent Policies.
- A register of visiting speakers will be maintained by the Assistant Head, Pastoral.
- On arrival visiting speakers will sign in at the relevant reception, ID will be checked and the visitor will be issued with a visitor's badge.
- Visiting speakers will be supervised by a member of staff whilst on site and during the talk. At no point will a visiting speaker be left unsupervised with students.
